Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Thursday - 4 June 1964

4. (Unclassified - GLC) Ted Shaw, in the office of Representative Thomas P. O'Neill, called to ask if we could provide a set of the publication "Broadcast Stations of the World" put out by FBIS. I advised Mr. Shaw that we had obtained only enough copies of this publication to distribute to the intelligence community, that it was available through GPO on a purchase basis, but I assumed if the Congressman desired a personal set it could be obtained through GPO channels.

5. (Unclassified - GLC) Talked with Mrs. Annette Murray, Staff Assistant on the Select Committee on Government Research, regarding Chairman Elliott's request for information on Agency research and development efforts. I advised Mrs. Murray that we anticipated problems in providing the Committee with any significant material which would not be classified. (In a previous similar request, this Committee indicated it did not desire classified material.) Mrs. Murray suggested that we talk with the Committee Counsel, Mr. Naftalin, upon his return to Washington next week. Meanwhile, the 8 June deadline in the Committee's written request was extended. This matter has been discussed with OSI and the Budget Division and is being taken up further with the Office of Logistics.

6. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met with Mr. John Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who advised that the Chairman's schedule is very full for next week and it would be very difficult to schedule the hearings for Monday, Tuesday or Friday of the following week. He also indicated that he hoped that we would be able to schedule a day for this hearing when Mr. McCone himself would be available, and that he would appreciate as long lead time notice as possible. I indicated we would see what we could do on scheduling for Wednesday or Thursday, the 17th or 18th, and would be back in touch as soon as possible.

7. (Internal Use Only - JGO) At his request, I met with Mr. T. Edward Braswell, Professional Staff Member, Senate Armed Services Committee, and discussed with him the basic structure of the Intelligence Community with emphasis on roles of DIA and CIA. Apparently a question had been raised by Senator Stennis concerning possible conflicting roles and duplication of efforts between DIA and CIA. Mr. Braswell was most appreciative of the briefing and the reference materials furnished for his use in dealing with Senator Stennis on this subject.
